

Are you interested in teaching a short course at the 2019 AAPOR conference? Or, do you have an idea for a short course that you would like to take? We are now accepting ideas/abstracts: <https://www.surveymoz.com/s3/4507156/AAPOR-2019-Short-Course-Submission>

A few things to know before you submit:

1. You will be asked for the following information:
 - a. Name and contact information of instructor(s)
 - b. Bio of instructor(s) (less than 100 words)
 - c. Proposed title
 - d. Short description (less than 200 words)
 - e. Course objectives (few sentences)
2. Deadline for submissions is September 15, 2018
3. Logistics for teaching the course
 - a. The course should be interactive and have practical application
 - b. All courses are 3.5 hours long
 - c. Course sizes vary, but we average around 35 participants
4. Perks of teaching
 - a. $1,000 honorarium
 - b. 2 free nights in the conference hotel
 - c. Waived conference registration fee

The short course committee is looking forward to reading your abstracts!

Emilia Peytcheva

AAPOR Short Course Subcommittee Chair